

First Congregational Church of Los Angeles
Fall Series 1
Painting the Stars ~ A Renaissance of Wonder 6 September 2026

LVF Update Monday 31 August

Preaching: LVF

Worship Leading: ML & Betsy Sullenger

Strips of paper in programs for prayers

Organ Prelude-Concert

Dr. Christoph Bull, Organist-in-Residence

Chiming of the Hour

[Michael and Betsy center chancel]

Welcome

ML

Words of Gathering

ML and Betsy

Betsy: We gather now, harvesters of an all-pervasive grace, unexpected benefactors of the deed to this great and glorious cosmic inheritance.

Michael: We, the walking, waking stars, ablaze with wonder, imagination,
and hope,
gather to remember three words: kinship with all that is;
debt, that can only be paid forward;
gift, sacred mantra of the humble.

Betsy: Creation,
the great and glorious sacrifice of abundance, asks in return-onlythat we shed our entitled egos and drop to our knees, uttering a single, simple prayer
that changes everything:

‘Thank you.’ [bsanguin]

Michael: Please stand now, in body or in spirit, for our Hymn of Creation.

Hymn of Creation

SALZBURG

OR St. George’s Windsor – OR we can use - Come Ye Thankful People, Come.

Let the whole creation cry, “Glory be to God on high!”
Heaven and earth, awake and sing, to your God your praises bring.
Sun and moon, uplift your voice, night and stars, in God rejoice;
sunshine, darkness, cloud, and storm, rain and snow in praise perform.

Chant in honor, ocean fair; earth, soft rushing through the air;
birds, with morn and dew elate, sing with joy at heaven’s gate.
Let the blossoms of the earth join the universal mirth;
men and women, young and old, raise the anthem manifold.

You to whom the arts belong, add your voices to the song;
bards of knowledge and of law, to the glorious circle draw.
From the north to southern pole let the mighty chorus roll:
“Holy, holy, holy,” cry; “Glory be to God on high!”

[Michael center chancel]

Prayer of Awareness

ML

Holy One,
sometimes we forget that we carry around in our bodies,
and in our luminous minds,
the entire universe.

Illumed One,
despite knowing that each carbon atom in our blood and firing neuron in our brain came from ancient stars, we still ignore our own radiance.

Too often, Mysterious One,
we cannot see the miracles that are right before our eyes.

Help us, O God, in this time to see your light shining upon us and help us God to look to the stars so that we might see your light around us,

*among us, and within us -
on this day,
and on all the days to come.
Amen and Amen!*

[All turn towards choir]

[illegible]

[Betsy to lectern]

*The Lord's Prayer

Betsy

Let us now join our voices in this Lord's Prayer...

*Weaver of Life, Ancient and Unfolding,
How sacred is your Presence!
We lean on your guidance.
We seek your love.
We open to your transformation.
Provide us bread in body and spirit to sustain us in faith and solidarity.
Companion us with grace
as we seek to live lives of forgiveness and compassion, repair and accountability.
We remember those who have supported us as we seek to support others in all the mess and glory of this human journey.
Guard our minds and hearts from the temptation of domination and turn our loyalty away from the systems of evil.
For the whole cosmos hums with your wisdom.
Everything that lives, returns to your care.
Our thanks and honor to you,
Gracious Web of Existence,
Our Source and our Home.
Amen and Amen.*

[enfleshed]

[All turn towards altar]

Gloria Deo

Glory be to God, and to the Christ and to the Holy Ghost,
As it was in the beginning, is now and ever shall be.
World without end, Amen, Amen.

[Michael to center chancel]

Passing of the Peace

ML

In the rising of the sun and its setting, in the glow of the moon and its seasons,
in the infinity of space and its shining stars,
we experience God with gratitude.

This morning, may we know the harmony of heaven in the relationships of earth and may we know the expanse of its mystery within ourselves and within each other.

This morning, may the peace of God be with you.
And also with you!

You are now invited to share this greeting with those near you.

Please be seated

[Betsy to lectern]

Readings from the Wisdom of Our Tradition

Betsy

from the Psalms Psalm 19:1-4

A Reading from the Psalms...

The heavens herald your glory, O God,
and the skies display your handiwork.
Day after day they tell their story, and night after night they reveal the depth of their understanding.
Without speech, without words,
without even an audible voice, their cry echoes through all the world,
and their message reaches the ends of the earth.

from the Prayer of Azariah

And please join us in this reading from the Prayer of Azariah...

Blessed are you in the high heavens, O God.*

Let the sun and moon praise you.

Let the stars and all that shines with glory praise you.

For you are the God of all creation.

This is the witness of the people.
Thanks be to God!

*The Prayer of Azariah is a passage that appears after Daniel 3:23 in Roman Catholic and Eastern Orthodox Bibles, as well as in the ancient Greek Septuagint translation.

[Christoph short transition ML center chancel]

Prayers with the People

ML

Invitation to Silence and Prayer

As we share these moments of silence, we are invited to write the prayers of our hearts for our lives and the life of our world on the slips of paper in our programs. If you are online, please share your prayers by emailing prayers@fccla.org.

Then, as the music begins, we are invited to come forward to share our prayers here in the bowl, and to light candles signifying our prayers, for ourselves, those we love and hold dear - and for the life of the world.

Let us now be in silence, together.

Silence

[Christoph transition out of silence as people come forward to offer prayers and light candles]

[Michael center chancel when all are seated]

Prayer of Our Hearts

Eternal Mystery, Heaven's Presence, Stillest Breath and Deepest Sigh, we open our hearts
to the presence of Who We Are in this place.

Each of us brings life to this day's possibilities.
We bring hope, or despair,
eagerness or malaise,
joy or sorrow
and with these things we paint the skies above us.

May the beauty of life's fullness unfold in our hearts that we may loosen
the grip of the mundane on our lives.
May the richness of mystery unfold in our minds that we may let go of our need for proof.
May the possibility of newness and light be present to us that we may unfold the wings of our faith and soar as into a world changed by our possibilities.

May we see in the skies we have painted the collective beauty of the world and the miracle of our presence in it.

May it be so.
May it be so for all of us.
Amen and Amen!

[Christoph transition for choir]

Meditation Anthem

O Virtus Sapientiae
Dr. Fahad Siadat, Conductor

Hildegard von Bingen

[Christoph transition Laura to pulpit, choir to seats]

Sermon

A Renaissance of Wonder

LVF

[Christoph transition Betsy to lectern]

Invitation to Generosity

Betsy

This morning, we are here to remember the harmony of heaven in the relationships of earth, and to respond to the expanse of this mystery
within ourselves and within each other.

Our offerings and gifts are an essential part of this remembrance.
We give thanks to God for this life we are privileged to share, and we give from our resources to ensure that this community continues to grow in its commitment of being a place where all God's children are celebrated and loved.

Today, we share our offerings for our Food@First program, which, twice each month, allows us to nurture community with our neighbors, as we share fresh groceries and food grown and harvested from our Community Gardens and Urban Farm.
We also share diapers for over 80 young families and older adults. Your gifts to Food@First make this work possible and make difference in many people's lives.

Thank you for your ongoing generosity through your financial support, your time, your gifts, and talents.

FOOD AT FIRST QR Code

Offertory Anthem Silent Noon
Dr. Fahad Siadat, Soloist, Dr. Christoph Bull, Piano

Ralph Vaughan Williams
text: Dante Gabriel Rossetti

[All turn towards altar]

Doxology

From all that dwell below the skies,
let the Creator's praise arise!
Alleluia! Alleluia!
Your name shall sound and praises soar till suns shall rise and set no more.
Alleluia! Alleluia!
Alleluia! Alleluia! Alleluia!

[adapt/Isaac Watts, 1719]

[Betsy to lectern toward end of doxology]

Prayer of Offering

Betsy

O God of the Universe,
we give thanks today for the Driving Force at work in our world that becomes visible in extravagant generosity and celebration of being.

We rejoice in the awareness that we are co-creators with you of this life,
and we pray for the grace to accept its responsibilities.

*Help us in these days to work with the Spirit of Life so that we may give breath to your dream for our lives, and for our world.
We pray this in the Way of of the One who taught us how to see.
Amen and Amen!*

Please be seated

[Laura & Michael center chancel]

Life at First Church

ML & LVF

ML: We will welcome new members next Sunday! Please let me know if you'd like to join. You'll have another opportunity to join in December this year and, in November, we'll have a Discovering Belonging at 1st Church gathering. This is not required, so if you'd like to be a part of next week, please do!

LVF:

ML: Fall gatherings begin: Book Group (Tuesdays, beginning 9.15), Sanctuary (Wednesday, 9.9), Men's Group (TBD), Not Your Grandma's Bible Study (TBD), Collaboratives (Sunday, Sept. 27)!

LVF: Coffee Hour today

Words of Blessing

LVF

The blessings of heaven,
the blessings of the earth,
the blessings of sea and sky.
On those we love this day and on every human family
the gifts of heaven,
the gifts of earth,
the gifts of sea and sky.
Amen and Amen!

Choral Response

To Sit and Dream

Dr. Rosephanye Powell
Text: Langston Hughes

Hymn for the Journey

Come See the Fullness

BUNESSAN

God the Creator gave in abundance
All of the wonder we now behold;
Colors of glory, everyday beauty,
Echo the story of God's deep love.

Bold as the sunlight, tender as nightfall,
Love shaped the heav'n's height; love filled the seas.
Love formed the flowers, called for the living;
Marked out the hours of time to be.

Come, see the fullness – life we've been given;
Beauty and promise, myst'ry and hope.
Laughter and weeping, vision and purpose;
Friends for the keeping, strength for the road.

- lyrics by Peggy A. Haymnes

[Michael center chancel]

Postlude

Dr. Christoph Bull, Organist-in-Residence

Inside The Music Dr. Ianthe Marini

Today we begin a new series exploring our own creation from the matter of the universe and the dust of stars: our interconnectivity with the particles that have existed before us and will continue with our passing. This great unifying force is a comforting and expansive thought. And so, there is no more fitting start to our morning than the well-loved comforting call from one of the world's great unifiers: Dolly Parton. "Everything's gonna be alright. It's gonna be ok", she reminds us even in her departing, through her stalwart and tireless legacy of standing brazenly and boldly in solidarity with the marginalized, and giving generously of her resources to people in need. "There is a light in the clear blue morning" when we commit to helping it shine.

A Renaissance of Wonder is further heard through the sonic universe created by the trailblazing mystic, thinker, artist, poet, and creative Hildegard von Bingen. Her mysticism of the 12th century reawakens our own heightened sense of presence within and throughout the universe even now. O virtus sapientiae - O Power of Wisdom, we call, as we seek to connect to that bold present! Which then invites us to be aware of that which surrounds us, celebrated in the Rossetti poem set so powerfully by Ralph Vaughan Williams and sung by Dr. Siadat and Dr. Bull— "your eyes smile peace. 'Tis visible silence: still as the hourglass. When twofold silence was the song of love." A renaissance—a reawakening—often comes with its utmost clarity in the living silence—the privilege to rest and to observe. And finally, we sing a Langston Hughes text from the Harlem Renaissance set powerfully by Dr. Rosephanye Powell, a dream for his enslaved ancestors to have the freedom "To sit. To sit and dream. To sit and dream about the world."