Words of Gathering

ML & ...

We are inseparable from generations past
and generations future.

The lives of the ones who came before us
are present all around us.

The needs of those to come call upon us this day.

What are we doing with all we have inherited - the wonderful and the terrible?

What will we leave behind?

*May the Holy things, the righteous things,
the things that make us brave in spirit
and fierce in hope
be our source of wisdom and guidance
as we strive to live faithfully-to the Sacred to each other
to those past and yet to come in these perilous and precious days
we have been given.*

May it be so.

May it be so for all of us!

[-enfleshed]

Hymn of Gathering

 From Wisdom Emerging (ST. DENIO).pdf

From Wisdom emerging, we fashion a space
for people converging in safety and grace, to shelter the freedom of one and of all in Love without border or boundary or wall.

Faith's journey reclaiming, we blaze a new trail
with others, exclaiming: "Let justice prevail!"
Rejecting worn paths that oppress and mislead,
we walk in community, cherished and freed!

Forever exploring, we seek to learn more of Wisdom's outpouring, of Love's open door.
Amazed at the mysteries and graces we find,
we joyfully share them with all humankind.

The future progressing, we move through its change,
old systems redressing, new patterns arrange;
protecting all the freedoms with every new choice,
we follow the Spirit and raise our clear voice!

Prayer of Awareness and Confession

ML

Holy One of freedom and liberation and reconciliation - you have given us the law, spoken through prophets, and provided us with the Spirit to help guide us
in love and justice.

Still we struggle.

The complexities of life and challenges of being human often win over. In our pain we harm one another, we do not intervene when our neighbors are targeted,
and we become possessive of power and resources.

Forgive us, O God.

And then, Gracious One,
ground our lives in mutual care and connection,
as we share with you - a vision of the belovedness
of each one of us, which is always and forever -
the cornerstone of your collective reality.

For this and so much more, we are grateful.
Amen and Amen!

The Lord's Prayer

Listen to these beautiful words from the Medical Mission Sisters who give their lives daily for those in need of the compassion of God.

God our Mother,
Living Water,
River of Mercy,
Source of Life,
in whom we live
and move
and have our being,
who quenches our thirst,
refreshes our weariness,
bathes
and washes
and cleanses
our wounds,
be for us always
a fountain of life,
and for all the world
a river of hope springing up in the midst of the deserts of despair.

Honor and blessing,
glory and praise
we give to you, O God, forever!

Let us join together in this Lord's Prayer, adapted by enfleshed...
*Mother of us all,

*who dwells within and beyond,
Sacred is your name.
May your holy vision for collective flourishing
come to fruition among us.
May your dreams of justice, love, compassion,
and connection be enfleshed on earth.
Provide us today with what we need to be nourishedd in body, soul, and heart.
Forgive us for the harm we cause as we seek to forgive those who have harmed us.
Lead us away from everything that destroys and liberate us from the hands of evil.
For you are the ultimate source of hope.
Your power-with exceeds all power over.
Your presence incites eternal wonder.
All praise to you, our comfort and strength.
Amen and Amen! [-enfleshed]*

[All turn towards altar]

Gloria Deo

Glory be to God, and to the Christ and to the Holy Ghost,
As it was in the beginning, is now and ever shall be.
World without end, Amen, Amen.

Passing of the Peace

In the center of the whirlwind lies an eye.
Still.
Open.
Calm.
Before we come into the world,
it is as though we live in that center –
no worries,
no storms,
only peace.

As we find our way in life,
even in the midst of chaos,
may we remember that center
and, as the need arises,
and it must,
may we hold
to the calm, open, stillness,

knowing it as home. [gvosper]

This morning, may the peace of God be with you.

And also with you.

Reading from the Wisdom of Our Tradition from the Gospel of Luke

Hear now this reading from the Gospel of Luke, chapter 9...

As the time approached when he was to be taken from this world, Jesus firmly resolved to proceed toward Jerusalem and sent messengers on ahead. They entered a Samaritan town to make preparations for him, but the Samaritans wouldn't welcome Jesus because his destination was Jerusalem. When the disciples James and John saw this, they said, "Rabbi, do you want us to call down fire from heaven and destroy them?" But Jesus turned and reprimanded them. Then they set off for another town.

This is the Gospel of Grace.

Thanks be to God!

*Offering Prayer

Holy Mystery,

we pray this morning ---

mindful of all that has brought us together,

of the Spirit of Life at work in our lives,

and of what may be possible

if we allow this Spirit to work freely in each of us.

Let our generosity increase

as our lives are transformed

so that we may be light and life in this place.

Amen and Amen!

Life at First Church

LVF & ML

ML: Our gardens have acquired two cats to care for the space, lovingly trained by Michael Wickstrom. Last week, our youth named the cats and Ianthe informs us that these brilliant puns come directly from the teens themselves! Please welcome to our community the cats of Amanda Scott Gardens: Bartholomew Simpson the Third, and Meowly Magdalene, middle name Jalene: representing the first initial of each of the youth's first names.

Words of Blessing

LVF

As we leave this sacred time and space,

Let us gather our courage in community, because...

We can do hard things

Brave things

Beautiful things

Risky and transformative things.

The Sacred travels with those who journey toward freedom.

For the sake of the collective life

For the sake of disrupting evil

For the sake of the human soul.

We are called and companied,
never really alone.

*May our hearts be encouraged both this day -
and in all the days to come.*

[-enfleshed]

Amen and Amen!

Choral Response

Amen

Kelly McCandless

So let it be. So it shall be. Let us love one another. Amen.

Postlude

Inside the Music - Dr. Ianthe Marini

In our musical exploration today of healing division, we focus on that which unites us. We begin with the call for unity —let all the world in every corner sing— composed by the prominent 20th century British progressive social activist Ralph Vaughan Williams, whose work was informed by his ideals that the healing properties of music should be accessible for all and not reserved for the economic elite. We hear the urgency in his invitation through the insistence of the organ line and the rhythmic pulse of the choral homophony. Sometimes love sounds rousing! We meditate on the theme of healing with the tune and poem That Which Can't be explained by Peter Eldridge, arranged by Laude's own Katelyn Dietz. In it, the singer inquires about differences unreconciled, questions of shaky refuge, and the agnostic presence of spirit, connecting always to loving that which can't be explained. Sometimes love sounds intangible and uncertain!

Brandon and Dr. Whitten then offer us the Rondo from John Carter's Cantata which implores us to ring-a-them-bells, referring to the joyful anticipation of the Jesus who came to heal the nations. Sometimes love sounds insistent! And finally, we sing Amen —let it be so— in the Kelly McCandless sonic poem which explores the meaning of the word. In it, she discovers that Amen, to her, means so let it be—so it shall be—we shall be who we are, one in the spirit. Let us love one another—Amen. Sometimes, love sounds like radical acceptance and the healing of division.
