First Congregational Church of Los Angeles
Fall Series 10
Sacred Earth, Sacred Soul ~ Sacred Flow
8 November 2026

LVF Updated 2 November 7:30pm
Needs Communion Liturgy
COMMUNION

Preaching: LVF
Worship Leading: ML & Dr. Jay Prewitt Cruz

Organ Prelude-Concert

Dr. Christoph Bull, Organist-in-Residence

Chiming of the Hour

[Michael and Jay to center chancel]

Welcome ML
Good morning and welcome to the Cathedral at First Congregational Church of Los Angeles.
Each week, we give thanks for all who have gathered from near and from far as we celebrate this life we are privileged to share.

Today we continue our creation series, Sacred Earth, Sacred Soul, as Rev. Laura reminds us of the Sacred Flow that has been with us since the beginning.

So together we set our intention for this day - and ask that our souls will awake to the words, the music, and the message of all - this time together will bring.

Let us now share these Words of Gathering.

Words of Gathering ML & JPC
JPC: Celtic wisdom looks for the flow of the divine deep within everything that has being.
It is like a subterranean river coursing through the veins of the universe.
If somehow it were dammed up or stopped, everything would cease to exist.

ML: This sacred flow is not simply a dimension of life that may or may not be there, depending on the moment, the place,

the person, or the species.
It is the very essence of everything that exists.

Both: On this day, let us awaken and look for the flow of the Divine deepen within all things and then, release it to ourselves and one another. [jphilipnewell]

JPC: Please stand now, in body or in spirit, for our Hymn of Gathering

[Choir mics on for hymn leaders]

Hymn Of Gathering For the Beauty of the Earth DIX

For the beauty of the earth, for the splendor of the skies,
For the love which from our birth over and around us lies,
God of all, to you we raise this our hymn of grateful praise.

For the wonder of each hour of the day and of the night,
Hill and vale, and tree and flower, sun and moon, and stars of light,
God of all, to you we raise this our hymn of grateful praise.

For the joy of human love, brother, sister, parent, child,
Friends on earth, and friends above, for all gentle thoughts and mild,
God of all, to you we raise this our hymn of grateful praise.

For the good that love inspires, for a world where none exclude,
For a faith that never tires, and for every heart renewed,
God of all, to you we raise this our hymn of grateful praise.

[Michael center chancel]

Prayer of Awareness ML

Holy One, in this sacred space, we bind unto ourselves today - the virtues of the star-lit heaven, the glorious sun's life-giving rays, the whiteness of the moon at even, the flashing of the lightning free, the whirling winds tempestuous shocks, the stable earth, the deep salt sea around the old eternal rocks.
Help us in this time to weave together spirit and matter as we seek the Divine around us, among us, and within us.

[adapted from The Prayer of St. Patrick hymn]

May it ever be so.
May it ever be so for all of us.
Amen and Amen!

[All turn towards choir]

Introit The Light of a Clear Blue Morning Dolly Parton

I can see the light of a clear blue morning. Everything's gonna work out fine. Everything's gonna be alright. It's gonna be OK.

[Jay to lectern]

The Lord's Prayer JPC

Let us now share these words for the Lord's Prayer, adapted from the New Zealand Book of Prayer…

Eternal Spirit
Life Giver, Pain Bearer, Love-Maker;
Source of all that is and that shall be;
Father and Mother of us all;
Loving God, in whom is heaven:
The hallowing of your name echo through the universe!
The way of your justice be followed
By all peoples of the world!
Your heavenly will be done
By all created beings!
Your commonwealth of peace and freedom
Sustain our hope and come on earth.

With the bread we need for today, feed us.
In the hurts we absorb from one another, forgive us.
In times of temptation and test, strengthen us.
From trials too great to endure, spare us.
From the grip of all that is evil, free us.

For you reign in the glory of power that is love and grace, now and forever. Amen.

[All turn towards altar]

Gloria Deo

Glory be to God, and to the Christ and to the Holy Ghost,
As it was in the beginning, is now and ever shall be.
World without end, Amen, Amen.

[Michael center chancel]

Passing of the Peace ML

All things come from you, O God, and to you we return.
All things emerge in your great river of life and into you we vanish again.
At the beginning of this day we wake not as separate streams but as countless currents in a single flow the flow of this day's dawning the flow of this day's delight the flow of this day's sorrows your flow, O God,

in the twistings and turnings of our days.
[jphilipnewell]

This morning, within all that is, and all that will be,
May the peace of God be with you.
And also with you!

You are invited to share this ancient greeting with a bow

Please be seated

[Jay to lectern]

Reading from Our Religious Tradition from the Gospel of Mark JPC
Hear now this reading from the Good News According to Mark…

After a long day of teaching to the crowds of people who had gathered, with the coming of evening Jesus said to his disciples, 'Let's cross over to the other shore.'
Leaving the crowd behind, they took Jesus in the boat in which he was sitting.
There were other boats with them.

Then, a fierce gale arose and the waves were breaking into the boat so much that it was almost swamped. But Jesus was in the stern through it all, sound asleep on a cushion.

This is the Gospel of Love and Grace.
Thanks be to God!

[Christoph transition Michael to center chancel]

Prayers with the People ML

Invitation to Silence and Prayer
In ancient times, the Celtic people would gather around their fires, and together, they would find assurance in looking at the heavens and remember what they knew in their hearts - that new beginnings can grow out of seasons of shadows and death.

Like our ancestors, we can know the connection between nature and grace, between the movement of the spheres above and our inner landscape of soul, and we can imagine fully awakening to the sacredness of the universe and one another in this space.

It is in such faithful imagining together that we will help bring about what we are most deeply longing for, a resurrection of harmony in our lives and our world.

As we enter into these moments of silence, may we be grateful for the gift of this time.

Silence

[2 minutes of silence, then Christoph transition out of silence]

Prayer of our Hearts
It is in the depths of life that we find you, Holy One.
At this heart of this moment at the center of our soul deep in the earth and its eternal stirrings.

You are the Ground of all being the Well-Spring of time womb of earth
the Seed-Force of stars.

And so at the opening of this day we wait not for blessings from afar but for You
the very Soil of our soul
the early Freshness of morning.
Time and eternity intertwined, heaven and earth inseparably woven together, the sacred flowing deep in the matter earth and the human mystery. [jphilipnewell]

May it ever be so.
May it always be so for us!
Amen and Amen.

[Christoph transition for Laude]

Meditation Anthem Whispering Waters Keith Christopher Esme Gregoropoulos, Violin, Dr. Bull, Piano, Cathedral Choir
Be still and hear the whispering waters. The waters flow so freely and know us by name.

[Christoph transition Laura to pulpit]

Sermon Sacred Flow LVF

[Christoph transition as Michael & Laura go behind communion table]

The Eucharist and Blessings LVF & ML

Invitation to Communion & Words of Remembrance God of all creation, from before there was a beginning,
until after there is an end,
you were and are and always will be.
All creation is alive
in you, and with you, and beside you.
For everything that is, came into being through you.

In praise and thanksgiving, with leaves that whisper,
brooks that babble,
with birds of the air and the fish of the sea,
and the stars above…
We join with all creation in saying,
Thanks be to you, O God.

As those who long to follow the Way of Jesus, and with those who live other paths,
We celebrate Life!

Gathered around this table,
we eat this bread and drink this cup, to remember that everything good that lives and breaths can be found in tables where love is shared, and peace finds a home.

We take this bread that comes from the earth,
we break it and we bless it, knowing it is the bread of new life for all who are hungry.

We take this fruit of the vine that grows from the sunlight, we pour it and we bless it, knowing it is the hope of the world for all who are thirsty.

You are welcome at this table if you have a little faith, a lot of faith, absolutely no faith, or are of another faith. This is the Table of the Christ, and the welcome is wide!

Sharing of the Bread and the Cup
At this table we celebrate all the diverse ways we have been created. Everyone is invited to share in this feast. This morning we will receive communion with gluten free wafers and grape juice. You are invited to come forward to receive these gifts and then light a candle to signify the prayers of your heart on this day. As we share this time, we remember that this is the bread of new life and the cup of hope, given in love for each of us.

[Jay to lectern]

Invitation to Generosity JPC

Each week we come into this sacred space and give thanks for the wonderful gift of reflective awareness that allows us to recognize and name the presence of the Creative Spirit beyond all imagining in our universe.

Everything we have,
everything we see,
everything we do,
everyone we love and everyone who loves us reveals this Illuminating Presence and our bonds with each other that reach across the globe.

We are so grateful that together, in this place and time, we are on the way to something unknown, something new, as we reimagine our faith.

A faith that is grounded and centered in the presence of our Good and Gracious God, who loves us more than we can imagine.

We invite you to join us in this ongoing task, by giving from your resources for the work within and beyond these walls.

You will find information for online giving in your programs and appearing on your screens at home. Our Hospitality Team will also come forward now to receive your offerings. Thank you for your ongoing generosity through the resources, time, and talents you bring to strengthen our community to be the Love of the Divine in the world.

Offertory Bridge Over Troubled Water Words and Music: Paul Simon
Frank Hobbs, Tenor, Dr. Christoph Bull, Piano

[All turn towards altar]

Doxology
From all that dwell below the skies, let the Creator's praise arise!
Alleluia! Alleluia!
Your name shall sound and praises soar till suns shall rise and set no more.
Alleluia! Alleluia!
Alleluia! Alleluia! Alleluia!
[adapt/Isaac Watts, 1719]

[Jay to lectern]

Prayer of Offering JPC
Holy One, as your life flows through the rivers and streams of this earth, remind us on this day, that your life also flows through us.
With these offerings we offer our thanks and praise and ask that the Spirit of Life, Love, and Goodness to move freely in our words and actions.
Awaken in us, the possibility of new life, new vision, and renewed meaning and purpose as we follow in the steps of those whose faith continues to flow around us, among us, and within us.

Thanks be to you, O God.
Amen and Amen.

Please be seated

[Michael and Laura center chancel]

Life at First Church LVF & ML

Words of Blessing LVF
May the deep blessings of earth be with us.
May the fathomless soundings of seas surge in souls.
May boundless stretches of the universe echo in our depths to open us to wonder to strengthen us for love to humble us with gratitude that we may find ourselves in one another that we may lose ourselves in gladness that we may give ourselves to peace.

Choral Response Bridge Over Troubled Water - Choral Reprise

Words and Music: Paul Simon

Cathedral Choir, Dr. Ianthe Marini, Conductor

[Choir mics on for hymn leaders]

Hymn for the Journey Come, See the Fullness BUNESSAN

God the Creator gave in abundance all of the wonder we now behold;
colors of glory, everyday beauty, echo the story of God's deep love.

Bold as the sunlight, tender as nightfall, love shaped the heav'n's height; love filled the seas.
Love formed the flowers, called for the living;
marked out the hours of time to be.

Come, see the fullness – Life we've been given;
beauty and promise, mystr'y and hope.
Laughter and weeping, vision and purpose;
friends for the keeping, strength for the road.

Open your hearts wide, teach us your wisdom lest our days pass by empty and small.
May we be witness with your creation – to your great kindness given to all.

[Michael center chancel]

Postlude

Dr. Christoph Bull, Organist-in-Residence

Inside The Music - Dr. Ianthe Marini

In the Celtic theological notion of Sacred Flow we revere waters as part of the Divine Feminine—that through the powers of waters which live and breathe, we find restorative forces which connect us as cosmic arteries to the source of all being. Perhaps you have felt in your own lives a moment when breathing near water has brought you peace, or a sense of deep knowing. This deep knowledge is our connection to that sacred flow which runs within us, between us, and connects us all.

In our musical exploration today we sing of those forces. First, in the Dolly Parton anthem Light of a Clear Blue Morning, feeling the wave of hope pass through us as we continue the work towards building systems that work for justice and dignity for all. Then, in the Keith Christopher anthem Whispering Waters, whose poetry and music illustrate that if we are still, we can hear the waters who call to us, and who know us by name. Poetry is in motion through vocalization in the choir which turns the vocal instrument into living breathing waves, and through solo movement of the Violin, played today by one of our beloved Youth, Esme Gregoropoulos. In her line, we hear the lilting movement of water in sighing eighth note patterns borrowed from the Baroque era—a rhetorical device used to signify the motion of emotion.

In offertory, Frank and Christoph bring us the classic by Paul Simon, Bridge Over Troubled Water, a reminder in this time that while the flow is sacred, she is not always smooth. As in the scripture reading today from the Gospel according to Mark, there will be fierce gales which swamp, but through those moments which are also sacred, we have one another. In benediction, we have a full choral reprise of this message, acting as a call and response between us all: I will be your bridge, and so will we for you. In what Dr. King called the beloved community, we move together with and for one another in her ebb and sacred flow.