

First Congregational Church of Los Angeles
Fall Series 5
Painting the Stars ~ We are Stories & Stardust
4 October 2026

Shooting Stars | Franz von Stuck, 1912

Preaching: LVF

Worship Leading: ML, Brittany & Lance Skiles

Strips of paper in programs for prayers

Organ Prelude-Concert

Improvisation on AUSTRIAN HYMN and TALLIS' CANON

ADORO TE DEVOTE

- Original Chant
- Setting by Janis Dunson Wilson
- Improvisation

Chorale Prelude on Orlando Gibbons' SONG 46 "Peace, Perfect Peace" (Anthony Giamanco)

Bicinium on CHRISTE SANCTORUM (John Barr) and Improvisation

Pastorale (Cécile Chaminade)

ST. DENIO (William H. Bates) and Improvisation

VATER UNSER IM HIMMELREICH (Samuel Scheidt)

Dr. Christoph Bull, Organist-in-Residence

Chiming of the Hour

[Michael, Brittany, and Lance center chancel]

Welcome

ML

Good morning and welcome to FCCLA! We give thanks for your presence here in the Cathedral today, and across the world in the cathedral of our planetary home. Here, all are welcome to be fully who we are, love who we love, and to explore spirituality and belief at our own pace. Our Fall Series concludes today as we remember we are stardust and stories. Let us open our whole selves in these moments to the Sacred within us and all around us, as we join together in these words of gathering.

Words of Gathering

Brittany & Lance

B: Since time immemorial,
we have gazed into the face of the universe,
its blind stare spilling back at us
from billions of suns, moons, and stars.

*Enriched by its mystery,
we cast into it our own –
stories of possibility, of hope, of promise.*

L: As we have woven our days,
pulling and stretching
to match the sacred stories we have drawn,
too often the beauty of the story
has risen far above
the realities with which we live.

Beginning today...

may we find new stories in the skies.

B: Beginning today...

may we sense new stories in our hearts.

Beginning today...

may we write new stories on the stones of our world.

B: And as we do so,
may we pour the life-changing beauty of truth
into ourselves and the world around us - so that those who come after us might find it there,
and live strong and powerfully
in its light.

Together, we rise as those who seek to light truth's shining torch.

[rexhunt/adptlvf]

L: Please stand now, in body or in spirit, for our Hymn of Gathering.

[Choir mics on for hymn leaders]

Hymn of Gathering

Creator of All Time and Space

TALLIS' CANNON

https://drive.google.com/file/d/1Rb1OxfNoJbar7T5pi2ZzVBAhaS75oPu_/view?usp=drive_link

Creator of all time and space,
We read your image on each face.
Great Spirit of the cosmic whole,
You made us body, mind, and soul.

We thank you for the human mind,
In mystic harmony designed,
For word and image, dream and thought,
For lessons learned and answers sought.

O God of planet, moon, and sun,
We wonder, knowing all you've done,
That you befriend the human race,
And fill our lives with love and grace.

For miracles as large as space,
As small as cells, as deep as grace,
We offer you our thanks and praise,
And pledge to serve you all our days.

-lyrics by Ruth C. Duck

[Michael center chancel]

Prayer of Awareness

ML

Let us pray:

O Holy One,
by your grace
we enter now
the sacred realm,
a place of deep connection with you,
with each other,
with the planet,
and with all creation.

*By your grace,
the walls that isolate fall;
fear dissolves into trust;
arrogance is gentled by compassion; our need to prove ourselves is tempered by self-acceptance.*

Now, we rest in a love
that helps us see our lives
as part of a great unity,
a coherence of grace.

*We join with all creation in proclaiming your glory,
and the glory of being alive.*

*We pray this as people
searching for a new way.
Amen and Amen!*

Introit

We Are Words and Music: Dr. Ysaye Barnwell
Dr. Fahad Siadat, Conductor

[Brittany to lectern]

The Lord's Prayer

Brittany

Please join us in this Indigenous Lord's Prayer...

*Great Spirit, our Creator, who is in all places,
Sacred is your name.
May your wisdom guide us,
Your will be done in our lives, as it is throughout Creation.*

*Provide for us today the nourishment we need,
And forgive us our wrongs, as we forgive those who have wronged us.*

*Lead us on the path of understanding and respect,
And protect us from ignorance and harm.*

*For you are the source of all power, beauty, and love,
From generation to generation, forever and always. Amen.*

[All turn towards altar]

Gloria Deo

Glory be to God, and to the Christ and to the Holy Ghost,
As it was in the beginning, is now and ever shall be.
World without end, Amen, Amen.

[Michael center chancel]

ML

Passing of the Peace

For the sacred earth
its scents and sounds and sights
we give you thanks, O God.

For the holy heavens
their heights and depths and breadth
we give you thanks.

May we love the earth
and cherish her fecundity.
May we love the rivers
and obey their ancient purity.
*May we love the skies
and honor their infinity
all for one another.*

This morning, may the peace of God be with you.
And also with you!

You are now invited to share this greeting with those near you.

Please be seated

[L & B to lectern]

Reading from the Wisdom of Our Traditions

Brittany & Lance

BS: Listen now to these Words of Wisdom...

LS: from Thomas Berry

An absence of a sense of the sacred, awe, is the basic flaw in many of our efforts at ecologically adjusting our human presence to the natural world.

It has been said,
'We will not save what we do not love'.
It is also true that we will neither love nor save
what we do not experience as sacred.

BS: from Romans 8

All of creation waits with eager longing for God
to reveal God's children...
Yet there was the hope that creation itself would one day be set free from being enslaved to decay and would share the glorious freedom of the children of God.

Both: For we know that up to the present time
 all creation groans with pain...
 but it is not just creation alone
 which groans;
 we who have the Spirit as the first of God's gifts also groans within ourselves as we wait for God to make us God's own children
 and set our whole being free.

LS: This is the witness of the people.
Thanks be to God!

[Christoph short transition ML center chancel]

Prayers with the People

ML

Invitation to Silence and Prayer

We gather, reflect and share,
 aware that in doing so we give human expression
 here on earth
 to the Divine Mystery present and active everywhere in this vast universe.

We gather, reflect and share,
 seeking to be enlightened
 by the power and presence of this Mystery,
 here,
 now,
 in us,
 in human form.

As we share these moments of silence, we are invited to write the prayers of our hearts for our lives and the life of our world on the slips of paper in our programs. If you are online, please share your prayers by emailing prayers@fccla.org.

Then, as the music begins, we are invited to come forward to share our prayers here in the bowl, and to light candles signifying our prayers, for ourselves, those we love and hold dear - and for the life of the world. Today, we also offer a glitter blessing to remind us of our shared origin story in the stars. After you drop your prayers in the bowl, Rev. Laura and I will meet you on either side to bless the top of your hand with glitter. If you'd prefer not to have the glitter, simply place your hand over your heart, and we'll offer you a blessing in word only.

Let us now be in silent prayer and meditation together.

Silence

Prayer of Our Hearts

Eternal One,
we have gathered to renew our confidence
in a more illumined future,
as we enter your kindom,
here and now
as a foretaste of all that will be.

We long to give ourselves to this emerging future,
knowing that all our choices,
no matter how small,
resonate across every strand of this cosmic web.

We know, O God, that we are not alone
as people who are longing for a future that is secure.
It is our fear that keeps us looking back over our shoulder,
and yet the Spirit is with us.
Let us not forget that are you with us -
in our passion to create this future,
and in our resolve to overcome all that keeps us
from your dream for all creation.

Lift us up, abiding Spirit,
above all obstacles,
and grant us a glimpse of what is possible
when hearts and minds
discover that you are in our fears,
our hopes, and our commitments. [bsanguin/adaptlvf]

May it be so.
May it be so for all of us.
Amen and Amen!

[Christoph transition for choir]

Meditation Anthem

Fly Free by Day, Swim Deep at Night David Montoya
Frank Hobbs, Fahad Siadat, Duet, Cathedral Choir, Dr. Siadat, Conductor Text: William Wallis

[Christoph transition Laura to pulpit, choir to seats]

Sermon

We are Stories & Stardust

LVF

[Christoph transition Brittany to lectern]Invitation to Generosity

BS

Today, in this sacred space that we call home,
we give thanks for the Spirit of Life
at work in our world.

The Spirit is best realized
in extravagant generosity
and the celebration of an inclusive community filled to the brim with the stories of who each of us are – in this time and place.

This morning, we rejoice that we have been called to be co-creators with God for the living of our days,
and we pray for the grace -
to accept these responsibilities.

As we give our tithes, our offerings,
and ourselves this morning,
we ask that the Spirit of Life
will take our gifts and use them - to give breath to God's dream
for our lives – and our world.

Today, we invite your offerings for our Food@First program, which, twice each month, allows us to nurture community with our neighbors, as we share fresh groceries and food grown and harvested from our Community Gardens and Urban Farm. We also share diapers for over 100 young families and older adults. Your gifts to Food@First makes this work possible and - makes a difference in many people's lives.

Thank you for your ongoing generosity through your financial support, your time, your gifts, and talents.

Food@First QR CodeOffertory Anthem

Star Readers

Text and Music: Tanner Pfeiffer

Tanner Pfeiffer, Conductor

*A star-filled sky once whispered of great mystery, and upturned eyes there sought a light divine.
Now smoky scars obscure the cost of certainty. To right past wrongs, our inner light we realign.*

[All turn towards altar]

Doxology

From all that dwell below the skies,
let the Creator's praise arise!

Alleluia! Alleluia!

Your name shall sound and praises soar
till suns shall rise and set no more.

Alleluia! Alleluia!

Alleluia! Alleluia! Alleluia!

[adapt/Isaac Watts, 1719]

[Lance to lectern toward end of doxology]

Offering Prayer

LS

Let us pray together:

Holy One,

We give thanks for the mystery of the universe,
for the marvel of the solar system
for the extraordinary beauty of a planet that collectively have brought us into life
and into human awareness of the profound interdependence of all things.

We accept our responsibility to do all we can

to protect,

to foster,

to defend

this exquisite and fragile web of interconnectedness.

May we allow the Mystery
that powers and sustains the universe - to power and sustain our efforts to care for
and to be worthy stewards of this wonderful planet
on which we depend for life, health, and well-being.

To this we give our all.

Amen!

Please be seated

[Laura & Michael center chancel]

Life at First ChurchML & LVF

ML: Food@First Celebrates 5 years! Thanks to our dedicated team and your generosity, we have and are becoming the best neighbors we can be in this community. The team serves fresh groceries today, and diapers for over 100 families and older adults, and our tables are filled with this morning's harvest of our Community Gardens & Urban Farm, thanks to that amazing team!

LVF: Second part of our fall series begins next week: Sacred Earth, Sacred Soul. This series comes from the writings of J Philip Newell and for many of us - his work has opened the door for us to reimagine our faith through the Celtic Tradition - whose center theme is Original Blessing. We look forward to sharing the beauty of this understanding over these next weeks.

ML: Events in today's insert

LVF: Join us for Coffee Hour today! We are downstairs inside Barnum Room. Signup for the chilli cookoff at this year's Fall Festival on Oct. 25! Signup sheet is with Obie at the welcome tab

Words of BlessingLVF

May the deep blessings of earth be with us.

May the fathomless surroundings of seas surge in our soul.

May boundless stretches of the universe echo in our depths and open us to wonder

to strengthen us for love

to humble us with gratitude

that we may find ourselves in one another

that we may lose ourselves in gladness

that we may give ourselves in peace.

May it be so.

May it be so for all of us!

Choral Response

How Brightly Shines the Morning Star

Philipp Nicolai

[Choir mics on for hymn leaders]

Hymn for the JourneyFor the Music of Creation*

AUSTRIAN HYMN

For the music of creation,
for the song your Spirit sings,
for your sound's divine expression,
burst of joy in living things:
God, our God, the world's composer,
hear us, echoes of your voice:
music is your art, your glory,
let the human heart rejoice!

All the voices of the ages
 in transcendent chorus meet,
 worship lifting up the senses,
 hands that praise and dancing feet;
 over discord and division
 music speaks your joy and peace,
 harmony of earth and yet of heaven,
 song of God that cannot cease.

--lyrics by S.E. Murray

[Michael center chancel]

Postlude

Short Fugue in D minor (Ascribed to J.S. Bach)

Dr. Christoph Bull, Organist-in-Residence

Inside The Music- Dr. Ianthe Marini

We are Stories and Stardust. I have long appreciated storytelling culture: the idea that stories are passed between generations and that we, ourselves, add breath, breadth, and depth to those stories while they journey to, through, and past us. I could think of no better invitation to our time together today than Dr. Ysaye Barnwell's poem We Are, serving as an evocative reminder into this wisdom. She writes,

"For each child that's born a morning star rises and sings to the universe who we are. We are our grandmothers' prayers. We are our grandfathers' dreamings. We are the breath of our ancestors. We are the spirit of God. We're seekers of truth and keepers of faith, we are makers of peace and the wisdom of ages."

In meditation, we sing David Montoya's setting of the William Wallis poem Fly free by day, swim deep at night, wherein two tenors duet as father and son and their shifting relationship as the son ventures on his own into adulthood. Today, our father and son are depicted by Fahad and Frank, both of whom are new dads themselves, navigating shifting waters of stories and stardust. In the piece, the choir serves as emotional support with tonal colors borrowed from the South Asian musical tradition sargam. It is not until the word "peace" that we hear a third in the chord, signifying a settled Major tonality. The material in the choir is somewhat improvisatory in nature, illustrating the freedom, and sometimes the unsettledness, of finding our way.

A feeling of improvisation and freedom also defines our offertory anthem, Star Readers, composed by Laude baritone Tanner Pfeiffer. In their program note, Tanner writes, "Throughout history and across the world, cultures have looked to the stars for inspiration, beauty, prophecy, and information. As industrialization and pollution have marred the planet and hidden the stars from so many eyes, how have we been separated from the awe of our ancestors? To have a hope of repairing this human bond with the cosmos, we must join together and make a concerted effort." In music that illustrates this idea through an open invitation to connect with our own ancestral breath and our truest vocal sound, Tanner facilitates this connection to our stories and to our formation from stardust. And finally in choral response, we sing the popular hymn tune by 16th century hymnist Philipp Nicolai, how brightly shines the morning star, with mercy beaming from afar: O hear our supplication.