Words of Gathering

ML & ...

We are inseparable from generations past
and generations future.

The lives of the ones who came before us
are present all around us.

The needs of those to come call upon us this day.

What are we doing with all we have inherited - the wonderful and the terrible?

What will we leave behind?

*May the Holy things, the righteous things,
the things that make us brave in spirit
and fierce in hope
be our source of wisdom and guidance
as we strive to live faithfully-to the Sacred to each other
to those past and yet to come in these perilous and precious days
we have been given.*

May it be so.

May it be so for all of us!

ML

Holy One of freedom and liberation and reconciliation - you have given us the law, spoken through prophets, and provided us with the Spirit to help guide us
in love and justice.

Still we struggle.

The complexities of life and challenges of being human often win over. In our pain we harm one another, we do not intervene when our neighbors are targeted,
and we become possessive of power and resources.

Forgive us, O God.

And then, Gracious One,
ground our lives in mutual care and connection,
as we share with you - a vision of the belovedness
of each one of us, which is always and forever -
the cornerstone of your collective reality.

For this and so much more, we are grateful.
Amen and Amen!

The Lord's Prayer

Let us join together in this Lord's Prayer, adapted by enfleshed...

Weaver of Life, Ancient and Unfolding,
How Sacred is your Presence!
We lean on your guidance.
We seek your love.
We open to your transformation.

*Provide us bread in body and spirit
to sustain us in faith and solidarity.
Companion us with grace
as we seek to live lives of forgiveness and compassion, repair and accountability.
We remember those who have supported us
as we seek to support others
in all the mess and glory of this human journey.
Guard our minds and hearts from the temptations of domination and turn our loyalty away from all systems of evil.
For the whole cosmos hums with your wisdom.
Everything that lives, returns to your care.
Our thanks and honor to you,
Gracious Web of Existence,
Our Source and Our Home.*

[All turn towards altar]

Gloria Deo

Glory be to God, and to the Christ and to the Holy Ghost,
As it was in the beginning, is now and ever shall be.
World without end, Amen, Amen.

Passing of the Peace

In the center of the whirlwind lies an eye.
Still.
Open.
Calm.
Before we come into the world,
it is as though we live in that center –
no worries,
no storms,
only peace.

As we find our way in life,
even in the midst of chaos,
may we remember that center
and, as the need arises,
and it must,
may we hold
to the calm, open, stillness,
knowing it as home. [gvosper]

This morning, may the peace of God be with you.
And also with you.

Please be seated

Reading from the Wisdom of Our Tradition from the Gospel of Luke Hear now this reading from the Gospel of Luke, chapter 9...

As the time approached when he was to be taken from this world, Jesus firmly resolved to proceed toward Jerusalem and sent messengers on ahead. They entered a Samaritan town to make preparations for him, but the Samaritans wouldn't welcome Jesus because his destination was Jerusalem. When the disciples James and John saw this, they said, "Rabbi, do you want us to call down fire from heaven and destroy them?" But Jesus turned and reprimanded them. Then they set off for another town.

This is the Gospel of Grace.
Thanks be to God!

Holy Mystery,

we pray this morning ---

mindful of all that has brought us together,

of the Spirit of Life at work in our lives,

and of what may be possible

if we allow this Spirit to work

Let our generosity increase

Life at First Church

LVF & ML

ML: -Our gardens have acquired two cats to care for the space, lovingly trained by Michael Whickstrom. Last week, our youth named the cats and Ianthe informs us that these brilliant puns come directly from the teens themselves! Please welcome to our community the cats of Amanda Scott Gardens: Bartholomew Simpson the Third, and Meowy Magdalene, middle name Jalene: representing the first initial of each of the youth's first names.

Words of Blessing

LVF

As we leave this sacred time and space,

Let us gather our courage in community, because...

We can do hard things

Brave things

Beautiful things

Risky and transformative things.

The Sacred travels with those who journey toward freedom.

For the sake of the collective life

For the sake of disrupting evil

For the sake of the human soul.

We are called and companioned,
never really alone.

*May our hearts be encouraged both this day -
and in all the days to come.*

[-enfleshed]

Amen and Amen!

Postlude

Inside the Music - Dr. Ianthe Marini

In our musical exploration today of healing division, we focus on that which unites us. We begin with the call for unity —let all the world in every corner sing— composed by the prominent 20th century British progressive social activist Ralph Vaughan Williams, whose work was informed by his ideals that the healing properties of music should be accessible for all and not reserved for the economic elite. We hear the urgency in his invitation through the insistence of the organ line and the rhythmic pulse of the choral homophony. Sometimes love sounds rousing! We meditate on the theme of healing with the tune and poem That Which Can't be explained by Peter Eldridge, arranged by Laude's own Katelyn Dietz. In it, the singer inquires about differences unreconciled, questions of shaky refuge, and the agnostic presence of spirit, connecting always to loving that which can't be explained. Sometimes love sounds intangible and uncertain!

Brandon and Dr. Whitten then offer us the Rondo from John Carter's Cantata which implores us to ring-a-them-bells, referring to the joyful anticipation of the Jesus who came to heal the nations. Sometimes love sounds insistent! And finally, we sing Amen —let it be so— in the Kelly McCandless sonic poem which explores the meaning of the word. In it, she discovers that Amen, to her, means so let it be—so it shall be—we shall be who we are, one in the spirit. Let us love one another—Amen. Sometimes, love sounds like radical acceptance and the healing of division.
